RLS Breaks Ground

The informal groundbreaking ceremony held at the Robert Louis Stevenson School last Friday was the occasion for nostalgia as well as pride as Headmaster Robert U. Ricklefs reviewed the progress of his young (16-year-old) but thriving school.

Students and faculty gathered at the site of one of five new buildings to be built over the next year to watch the symbolic turning of a spadeful of earth by representatives of the school and by S. F. B. Morse of Del Monte properties.

One of the new buildings scheduled to be completed by the opening of school in September is the S. F. B. Morse Fine Arts Center, named for Morse as a tribute to his interest in the fine arts and his devotion to the scenic beauties of the Monterey Peninsula and the coast lands.

Morse, who was honored at the ceremony by Mr. Ricklefs, in turn spoke a tribute to Stevenson School headmaster for "the wonderful job he has done with his boys."

The groundbreaking marked the beginning of the last phase of the building program which has over the years seen the construction of an award winning chapel, an expansive gymnasium and swimming pool complex and a handsome dining hall.

When the five new buildings, the fine arts center, a library, a science building, a classroom complex and an auditorium are completed, the school will have a valuation of $3 million, 20 times the valuation of the campus in 1952. The new structures will make a total of 35

Medical Director Speaks at Rotary

Wednesday's speaker at Carmel Rotary Club's luncheon meeting was Assistant Medical Director of the Monterey County Health Department, Dr. Robert Fries. His talk was supplemented by two young people who are presently drug users.

Highlights of the talk included:

- Up to 30 per cent of Monterey Peninsula high school students have used or are using marijuana.

- Pure marijuana is much stronger than that generally available now and will cause severe effects for days after usage.

- Because of recent unpleasant experiences and revelations, very few young people use the so-called harder drugs.

- Marijuana cost is about three cents a cigarette but occasional users obtain it without cost.

A new program has been established by Rotary International whereby a Rotarian, retired, semi-retired or mid-career, can volunteer his expertise in the fields of education, health, business agriculture, community and rural development in a nation less developed economically. It is called "Rotary Volunteers Abroad".

Three Have Filed for Council

With election time drawing near (April 9) it is noted that the terms of three councilmen, one clerk and one treasurer will expire. So far Eben Whittlesey, Gunnar Norberg and Frank Falge have filed papers for election to the council; Hugh Bayless as City Clerk, and John Rennels as City Treasurer. Only Mayor Steve Grant has not declared.

Councilman Whittlesey, a Carmel attorney, will seek reelection for a third term. Whittlesey, now vice mayor and former mayor, has the distinction of holding the record number of votes cast for a particular councilman.

Incumbent Gunnar Norberg, owner of Norberg Travel Agency, and the lone dissenter of the Motel and Sunset Ordinances, will also seek his third term.

Frank Falge, retired General Electric executive, a Carmel Cultural Commission member, and retired captain in the Navy, is the third so far to declare his candidacy.

Hugh Bayless, present City Clerk and City Administrator, has filed for reelection.

Incumbent treasurer John Rennels has announced his desire to seek reelection. Rennels was appointed to this office last June when Frederick Duhring was unable to complete his term. He is a vice president of Carmel Savings and Loan and has been associated with that firm for 15 years.

Letter To Editor

As I sat in Council Chambers on January 17, 1968, and listened to Dr. Melvin J. Steckler's "Final Organization Study and Proposals," I became acutely aware of how badly the taxpayers of Carmel "had been taken to the tune" of $5,000.00. This is one of the most flagrant examples of a waste of public funds I have ever encountered in Carmel.

Mr. Steckler has a beautiful command of the English language, but everything in the final analysis in his report was based purely on theory. As an example: Under the heading, "Estimate of Benefits to be Derived," Mr. Steckler uses the elimination of a proposed Assistant City Administrator's position with a savings per year of $7,000.00. Where is the proof that an Assistant

Council Action Could Affect Referendum

The City Council acted on two items of the agenda last night which might have an effect on the two referendum petitions.

The body voted to transfer the $2,000 set aside for the possibility of paving the north playground at Sunset Center to the Capital Outlay fund.

The second action could affect the motel referendum petition. The Planning Commission sent a letter to the Council taking no action on the recommendations from the Citizens' Committee to make several word changes; but the Council in turn approved two changes and referred them to the Planning Commission for further action. Further action could result in a public hearing. Councilman Eben Whittlesey said these items are worthy and the Planning Commission can start the "machinery" moving immediately. They do not have to wait for the results of the referendum petition, necessarily.

According to Citizens' Committee Board of Directors member, and candidate for City Council, Frank Falge said he recalled that the majority of the board was in favor of the ordinance and that the Citizens' Committee recommended passage, but only with the suggested changes.

(See Fisher recommendations on page 12).

Other action came when Herb Blanks recommended that a sign be installed at San Carlos and Ocean Avenue with an arrow pointing to Sunset Center, reading "Free Public Parking." (Not to be confused with parking at the North Playground.) This item passed through the Council.

The consideration of increasing the Hostelry Tax from four per cent to five per cent was put on the Consent Calendar. Frank Falge asked that the additional one per cent be earmarked for seats and programs at Sunset.

is even necessary? On several occasions I have been in the City Hall and I have not received the impression that the City Administrator was over-worked. Another item termed "Budgetary Reductions," totaled $16,000.00. In the report there was not a single breakdown or explanation indicating how this saving was to be accomplished. The next item, "Value of Improved Services," $8,000.00; and, again, nothing to substantiate this figure, as if it had been drawn out of the air. These three figures total $31,000.00 as a theoretical saving against an added cost of $13,120.00 proposed in the study, leaving the City of Carmel with an additional cost of $7,880.00.

Mr. Steckler's fee for this study was $5,000.00. I ask you; was it worth it? I believe not! Calvin Baldwin

Theatre Review

CARMEN BABY, A blatant group of depraved unknowns go through their paces with great enthusiasm. Must be fun to make these films. Undoubtedly more fun making than seeing.

THE GOOD, THE BAD AND THE UGLY, starring Clint Eastwood and others to make up a trio of ruthless killers who roam the West during the last years of the Civil War. Technicolor.

THE BEST OF BRITISH FILMS is a collection of classic films selected by discriminating moviegoers as their favorites, each of which has left its mark on the history of the screen.

GENEVIEVE is one of the funniest farce comedies in years.

HAMLET is an Academy Award winner.

RED SHOES, winner of three Academy Awards, and so forth. A must.

JUNGLE BOOK, a Walt Disney cartoon version of the beloved story by Rudyard Kipling. The voices are Phil Harris, Louis Prima, George Sanders and Sterling Holloway. Primarily a children's show.

THE GRADUATE, interesting, if not completely compelling, comedy. Dustin Hoffman is excellent in the title role. Anne Bancroft is extremely good as the woman who seduces him and Katharine Ross is attractive as her daughter with whom Hoffman falls in love. The picture argues that all over 30 are dishonest, corrupt and unthinking.

WAIT UNTIL DARK, a suspenseful thriller in which a blind girl, trapped by thugs who try to make her reveal the whereabouts of a cache of heroin, outwits her torturers.

THE AFRICAN QUEEN, a reissue of a remarkable tale of high adventure during World War II, with Humphrey Bogart as a river boat captain and Katharine Hepburn as a spinster missionary who blow up an enemy gunboat.

A PATCH OF BLUE, with two Academy Award winners, Sidney Poitier and Shelley Winters, its a moving, tender and at moments heartbreaking drama.

UP THE DOWN STAIRCASE, exceptional film version of popular Bel Kaufman novel. Fine writing and direction assist able cast led by Sandy Dennis to capture honest flavor of teachers experiences in today's big-city schools.

HOW I WON THE WAR, is starring John Lennon, who is making his first film without the other Beatles. Co-Starring Michael Crawford, a complex soldier in a role that is alternately comic and tragic.

THE COMEDIANS. This is a turbulent drama of a group of Europeans living under the dictatorship of Papa Doc Duvalier, starring Elizabeth Burton playing the unfaithful wife of Peter Ustinov.

YOU'RE A BIG BOY NOW is a "new wave" mood,

Studio Opens "Generation"

The forthcoming show at the Studio Theatre-Restaurant in Carmel is "Generation," a comedy by William Goodhart, in which Henry Fonda had his last starring role on Broadway two seasons ago. After its February 9 opening, "Generation" will play Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights through March 24.

Taking the "generation gap" as his theme, the author gives us a liberally oriented father whose determination to understand and get along with his daughter's new husband is shattered when the young couple inform him that they are planning the home delivery of their imminent baby with the son-in-law as midwife. To forestall this do-it-yourself project, the father enlists the help of several cronies, one of them an obstetrician, and for three acts the younger and older generations take some telling shots at each other's values in a timely and amusing confrontation.

The cast of "Generation" includes: Richard Barratt as the father; Anne Brown as the daughter; James Trivette as the husband; James Lancina as the editor; Kent Seavey as the doctor and Rick Wolf as the public relations man.

Under the direction of Don Osborn and with setting and lighting by Bob Evans, Jr., "Generation" offers a humorous and refreshing look at the rebellion of youth against age. Reservations for dinner and show may be made by calling 624-1661 or 624-2321.

lavishing major acting and directing skills on an offbeat story presumably aimed at teenagers but poorly suited to them. A clerk shown awkwardly wooing a wrongly idealized actress-dancer in a story treating a complex problem.

NATIONAL BEAUTY SALON WEEK SALUTES WOMEN'S BEAUTY

Salute to Women's Beauty

The Ruffled Curl Look is the new look in hair styles for Spring, according to the Official Hair Fashion Committee of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association. This new look features all of the tender quality of softly ruffled hair, combined with fun-loving curls.

Furthermore, the new look is highly romantic, a term that had not been used in the fashion vocabulary for many a year until hair brought it to the forefront. Now, this romantic hair fashion is pulling the various clothing looks in the fashion world together, be they cool chic, tough chic, or pretty girl.

This means that regardless of what look you select for your Spring wardrobe, or even if you use several that overlap for a variety of effects, you'll be pretty and fashion-right with a Ruffled Curl hair style.

The new Spring styles will be shown throughout the nation in observance of National Beauty Salon Week, February 11-17. The hair fashion authorities promise that the new styles will really give you a lift and a happy-go-lively feeling.

No two of the Ruffled Curl hair styles are alike in design detail—they are all so light and easy, they have to be done just for you. However, all styles have the form of either a vertical or horizontal oval when viewed from the front.

Some of the styles flow with the rhythmic and dreamy grace of a soft and lilting melody. Some have the slow curve and caress of a femme fatale. Others ruffle, ripple, and flutter, seemingly uncontrolled and casual, but really calculated and careful. All are deliciously feminine.

All coiffures also have an extra touch of Spring—a fascinatingly zany bouquet of farfelutin ringlet curls strikingly placed either low at each side of the nape, behind each ear, over the ears, or in front of the ears. These fun-loving curls can be pinons, or your own hair. However, in every case they must be see-throughs, light and airy for a season of light and air.

All Ruffled Curl hair styles also feature a small and dainty head. Hair in the crown has but a slight rise which extends to the middle of the back of the head, and then tapers in toward the nape following the natural contour of the head.

Hair partings, reminiscent of the Twenties and Thirties, make a big play. But, their use depends upon the particular design of your style, which, again, has to be determined by your needs.

By the same token, the uncovered forehead gains more popularity for Spring, and is expected to carry though heavily into Summer. However, light bangs of ruffles that tickle the face are used whenever required by facial proportions and hairlines.

The foundation of the new Spring hair styles is the Ruffle Cut, which must be adapted to each individual face and head shape, so that the resulting hair style projects a vertical or horizontal oval form. Practically speaking, hair lengths will be comparatively short. If you want long hair, buy it.

A professionally prescribed permanent wave, one that is just a shadow of a permanent, is required to give your hair that soft ruffle and easy care. Important, too, are some good hair conditioning treatments to erase any trace of winter drabness from your hair, and give it that young and romantic look.

New hair colors for Spring call for ice cream tones in the blonde spectrum, rich creamy shades shadowed with delicate touches of milk chocolate to accent the ruffles. Candy pinks will be used to make the palest shades blush. Redheads and brunettes will make their biggest pay in many a year, but will carry along in a natural theme.

The Beauty of Women in the United States will be given a special salute by the 70,000 members of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association during the 18th annual observance of National Beauty Salon Week, February 11-17, according to Gaines Pressley of Marietta, Ga., president of the professional organization.

"We have been dedicating National Beauty Salon Week to more beautiful women for the past 18 years," noted Mr. Pressley, "for we believe that the beauty of American women is one of the most precious and inspirational assets of our country."

The Farfelu Coiffure features the fun-loving curls of the ruffled Curl hair styles designed for Spring by the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association.

This Boopie-Do Coiffure is one of the happy-go-lively Ruffled Curl hair styles for Spring by the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association.

The Yum Yum Coiffure has a romantic look of oriental elegance. It is one of the new Ruffled Curl styles for Spring by the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association.

From Mexico To Nepal

Mrs. DeForest Sweeney of Carmel Meadows hardly had time to recuperate from the very strenuous sounding trip she and her husband took to Mexico, a nine-day "raft voyage" below Puerto Vallarta, when she departed for Nepal to attend the wedding of her son, Frank Wallace.

Frank, who has been in Nepal since 1965 in connection with his Peace Corps duties, is marrying a Nepalese girl named Bina Pandey, who has also been with the Peace Corps. Bina is the daughter of Col. and Mrs. Krishna Bahadur Pandey of Katmandu.

After a Hindu ceremony on the morning of February 7, and a civil ceremony in the afternoon, Frank and Bina will leave Nepal to travel in Europe. They will return to the United States in April and drive cross country to Carmel. They will continue their training work for the Peace Corps at U.C. Davis. Bina will instruct in Nepalese as she did in Hawaii for the Peace Corps.

Pine Needles...

Bathists Here in March

The George R. Walker family which returned recently from a European trip had tea in Paris with Dr. Bathiat and his daughter, Dominic, who is 20. Dr. Bathiat, a medical doctor and his wife, a pharmacist, are parents of "Fafou," our AFS Exchange student who is attending Carmel High. The Bathiats plan to visit Carmel in March.

Hearts and Flowers

A Valentine fashion show and luncheon will be presented by the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Church of the Wayfarer on Wednesday, February 14 at 12 noon.

The fashion show will be presented by Lorene Scala of Carmel. Her models, all of them local will be Mesdames Leona Brewster, Earl Leflingwell, William Ballard, Albert Hood, Richard Dick, Nancy Mullally and the Misses Dusty and Pixie Brewster, Burgit Pedersen, Valerie Mullally, Judy Bryans and Gayle Dixon.

Mrs. Ashley Shaw will show her collection of antique and historical Valentines, following the luncheon. Mrs. Shaw has made this her hobby over the years and has over 500 Valentines in her collection, some dating back to 1815.

The event will be held in the Fellowship Hall of the Church of the Wayfarer and is open to the public. Reservations may be made with Mrs. J. R. Reeves, 624-1942 or the church office, 624-3550. A nursery for little ones will be provided.

Jeffers Family Returning

Mr. and Mrs. Donnan Jeffers and Donnan Jr. and Robin return to Carmel early in March to occupy their home at Tor House, built by Donnan's famous poet father, the late Robinson Jeffers.

Una will probably stay in Ireland where she is in school, while Lindsay is completing a year at the American University in Paris.

Michael Cook, a Carmel High School graduate of 1960 is shown receiving his promotion to Lieutenant, J.G. from Captain Joseph F. Heald. Lieut. J.G. Cook is now teaching at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill. Capt. Heald is the C.O. of the Service School Command. Most of his service has been in submarines. Over 40,000 young men a year are processed through this school. This training equips them to master specialties in the Navy and in civilian life after their service is completed.

Back From Africa

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Williams and their pre-school son arrived home in Carmel recently from Africa where they have been traveling for several months in a camper truck. Chris, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meade Williams, has been doing a survey of dozens of countries, clear up to Lapland, where primitive tools are still being used in farming, fishing, building, etc. A book seems to be in the offing.

Thus he will join his mother, Mona Williams, whose hard cover novel in blank verse, "Voices in the Dark," reaches the book shops on February 16, and his father, famous writer.

Pebble Beach Golf Links, Spyglass Hill Golf Course, Cypress Country Club, the Seventeen Mile Drive, world famous Del Monte Lodge, and the beautiful Beach Club are within five miles of the site. Carmel, historic Monterey, Pacific Grove, Carmel Valley, the jet served Monterey County Airport, and the awe inspiring Big Sur country are all within minutes.

This program will appeal to both the "weekenders" or second home buyers and also to the year-round residents who no longer are interested in yard work and exterior maintenance, but who prefer to spend their leisure time enjoying the many pleasures of the Monterey Peninsula.

The homes have been designed to provide large entertaining areas, attractive modern kitchens, luxurious dressing and bath areas, large bedrooms, ample closets, attached two-car garage, fireplaces, and many other fine features.

Country Club Gate will be surrounded by a scenic forest greenbelt in perpetuity and will be a charming, sealed, park like area. Photography Competition Color slide enthusiasts are invited to participate in the 1968 San Francisco International Photography Exhibition. It is open to amateur and professional shutterbugs alike.

The exhibition is divided into two parts, a Pictorial division and a section devoted to Nature photography. In the Pictorial division there is no restriction as to subject matter but will contain a new subdivision for "contemporary" photography which will be eligible for special awards. The Nature section may include any phase of botanical, zoological or entomological subjects in color. Selections in each division will be made by panels of experienced judges following rules established by the Photographic Society of America. A maximum of four 2x2 slides may be submitted in each division.

The Final date for receipt ing entries will be March 4. Entry forms and additional information may be requested from: San Francisco International Exhibition, P.O. Box 188, San Francisco, California, 94101.

Tantamount Artist Of the Month

Helen Greer of Robles del Rio has been invited by Messrs. Geddis and Martin of the Tantamount theater to exhibit a number of her watercolors which they have chosen for presentation during February.

The artist is a former pupil of Nancy Johnson and Helen Dooley, art teachers in Carmel. She is a member of the recently formed Pacific Grove Art Association. Some of her work has been seen at the Pacific Grove Watercolor shows and at the recent Art Show in San Juan Bautista.

The Green Room of the Tantamount will be open to visitors from 2:00 - 5:00, Tuesdays through Saturdays, and at movietime on Friday and Saturday throughout the month of February.

LOS INDIOS TABAJARAS, sponsored by the Carmel Cultural Commission, will play at Sunset Sunday evening at 8:30. The duo just returned from a four-week sold-out tour of Japan. In the U.S. the guitarists have appeared on the Johnny Carson's Tonight Show, the Ed Sullivan Show, the Jack Paar Show. "Fast or slow, sad or saucy, music by Los Indios is always melodic and inspired."

New Friends Of Photography Exhibit On Display At Sunset

The public is cordially invited by the Friends of Photography to attend the opening of a new exhibit at the Carmel Photography Center in the Sunset Cultural Cen-

Sculpture by Local Craftsman Featured

A one man show of sculpture by Kenneth W. Weise who has been crafts instructor in the Carmel School District for the past 14 years is being shown at the new Seaside City Hall during the month of February.

Mr. Weise studied at the California College of Arts and Crafts in Oakland and with Alexander Weygers in Carmel Valley. He holds a master's degree in Industrial Art Education from Fresno State College.

A member of the Carmel Crafts Guild and Carmel Art Association, he has done much experimenting and work in his studio at home and enjoys working with a variety of materials.

Sculpture Class

Lenore Woolams' free sculpture class for the physically handicapped meets alternate Saturdays in Room 15, Sunset Center, Carmel. Next class Saturday February 10th from one to four. Lenore Woolams, Box 1281, Carmel. Phone 624-1315.

ter, on Friday 8:00 to 10:30 p.m.

The exhibit will be on view through March 15, daily from 1 to 4 p.m. (closed Mondays).

The exhibit presents the work of the students of the Institute of Design at the Illinois Institute of Technology in Chicago, Illinois and the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Both schools encourage freedom of thought and expression. The exhibit presented differs from any the Friends of Photography have offered in the past which has been the work of established and internationally famous photographers. The majority of the students represented have never been shown on the West Coast. This should be of great interest to those concerned with the possibilities of new directions and ideas in the development of photography.

Carmel Travelers

Trip to Europe, 1967

By Becky and Carolyn Walker

Becky, 10, and Carolyn, 11, who sell Pine Cones on Thursday afternoons, recently returned from Europe where they spent the month of December, along with their brother Jeff and sister Kathleen, mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Walker. They both kept diaries from which the Pine Cone presents excerpts.

The first thing they did when they landed in Paris, which was their headquarters, was to walk to the biggest museum in the world called the Louvre. "By the way," said Becky, "Paris is 9 hours ahead of us." It was a full day which included an afternoon tour in which they again visited the "Louvre," tea with Punk's Pen Pal, and the ballet at the Opera House.

Next day they saw the Eiffel Tower "the second floor was high," went in the "Besilica-Sacre-colour and Building of the invalids—finest building (arch.) in Paris—Napoleon's tomb" and saw "the arce de triumph." Then they drove to "a very very interesting and pretty palese called the Palese of Versailles (where all the kings of France reined). Then we went to a flour mill and had dinner."

After flying to Geneva, the family rented a Volkswagen which they drove to Chaminoux where they could see Mont Blanc.

Back to Paris by Air Afrique. Their lunch that day consisted of "bread (a long loaf), cookies, fruit and wine." Later they went to the "flee market" but didn't buy anything but Becky found a "1 centime which is worth 1/5 of a cent." That evening they took a taxi to the Opera House to hear "Rigilto," which they liked.

The following day they got in a car with the same little driver they had when they went to Versailles, to go to "fountain blue." Said Becky, "The man makes these little men out of chestnuts! and he puts corks in the end for wine. The fountain blue castle was not open. But the outside was pretty," said Carolyn "The stairs at Fountainblea are horse shoe shape. I stood on the spot were Napoleon waved good-bye to France." Met some people from Mexico and Thailand.

The family flew next day by Austrian Airlines "to Veene where we went to an operetta, called the 'prince student.' But it was not at the Opera house because we couldn't get tickets. After the opera we went to dinner were a man played music." Next day went to the Spanish Riding School to watch the horses practice. Then they went to a little snack bar and had "hot choc. and some famous cake." The amusement park with the "Paris-wheel 70 years old was closed" so they went to the "Danube Tower, 500 feet. The elevator was the fastest in Europe." After missing the tour they drove to St. Stephen's cathedral and saw the inside. Then Carolyn and Becky got a dress at Lanz. Said Becky "we have a Lanz in Carmel but I got one anyway." In the evening they enjoyed an operetta called "The Land of Happiness," after which they had dinner "where they played hungarian music with violins and bass." When they came out it was snowing.

Christmas was spent in Belfast, Ireland, with relatives. Here they learned what high tea was. "It is tea with meat." The children couldn't find a Christmas tree so they made a magazine tree for Mom and Dad with paper decorations on it and put up their slippers for Santa. Christmas morning they were "woken up by the manager and the porter and the girl at the desk who gave us each a present." Later they opened their stockings and each got a sixpence, a big chocolate Santa Claus on a stick, and other things.

Back in London, they "saw the desk that R.E.S. used to finish Treasure Island, Buckingham Palace, Big Ben, House of Parliament and lots of other places."

Miss Zierer will take a group of selected students abroad this summer. This is particularly a language study with side trips scheduled.

Bud Marshall's Automobiles

(Formerly AUCTION CITY AUTO SALES)

Bud Marshall started business December 1955. He and his partner boasted a Grand Total of $600.00. The lot was sand and weeds. The office, an old 10 by 12 hot dog stand. Their lighting was a discarded string of Christmas Tree lights from the city of San Jose, and their desk and 3 chairs cost $5.50 from a used furniture store.

The property was purchased October 1963, remodeled December 1963, and in May 1964, Bud Marshall bought out his partner. Auction City Auto Sales was a suitable name when the cars were pre-war vintage, but not for the Clean, Late Models in inventory today.

Bud Marshall has the Nicest, Most Modern, Independent Automobile Agency on the Monterey Peninsula, and pride of ownership was the deciding factor in choosing our new name — Bud Marshall Automobiles. This is why we say, "We're the newest — we're the oldest, and we think we're the greatest!"

Please visit our lot and inspect the many clean, completely remodeled automobiles we carry for your selection.

OBITUARIES

Carolyn Mead, resident of Carmel and Monterey Peninsula Country Club since her marriage to Orval G. Mead in 1955, died recently in Anselmo where they moved in 1966. Native of Everett, Washington, she was born in 1930. She is also survived by her son, Glen, aged 10.

Photography Workshop Well Attended

"Photography is made in the pit of your stomach—it's what you get excited about," said Milton Halberstadt, professional photographer from San Francisco, at the Friends of Photography workshop at Sunset Center, last Saturday morning.

About 60 members and professionals attended the panel discussion moderated by Bill Webb, Carmel photographer, on "Subject Matter, Does it Matter?" Panel members were Wynn Bullock, world renowned photographer, Marlinde von Ruhs, local artist, Don Ross, photographer, and Halberstadt.

Ansel Adams greeted the gathering which included Carmel's "grande dame" of photography, Imogene Cunningham, professionals Brett Weston, Al Weber, Lillian Lecoque, Art Connell and Gerry Sharpe, and Julia Scully, editor of Modern Photography, out from New York City.

In the afternoon, the group gathered again while prints were criticized by a panel consisting of Dick Garrod, Monterey City planner, Bullock, Halberstadt and Webb.

Charles McEwen (center) was installed as a Director of the Real Estate Certificate Institute for 1968 at the organization's Inaugural banquet recently held in Bakersfield in conjunction with the California Real Estate Association's annual convention. Mr. McEwen is an associate with Catlin-McEwen-Bigelow-Pool Realtors. With him are other directors being installed.

PARTY PLANS . . .

by Phyllis Jervey

South Pacific Party

Arm chair traveling overseas will become increasingly desirable, if not actually necessary before long. We local Explorers fans have something to boast and write about without leaving home! This Saturday at Carmel's Sunset Center, "Return to the South Pacific" will be shown and narrated by Thayer Soule, a favorite with Carmelites. Why not plan a Polynesian Party to get into the right mood?

For a tropical South Pacific setting and brief menu, straw mats in natural color or bright pastels, flowers, both fresh and artificial with ferns and bamboo, create an exotic background with utmost ease. While guests gather early, serve fruit punch, then with stereo island music, lead them to the lovely candlelit table where everything is in readiness.

Tahitian Punch

One, each, 6 oz. can lemonade, limeade and orange juice concentrate; 1 large can frozen pineapple chunks; 1 can papaya cubes; 6 cups dry gingerale. Makes 24 punch glassfuls.

Slightly thaw frozen juices and fruit. Combine juices in large glass pitcher. Stir until dissolved and blended. At serving, add ice-cubes and the partially thawed pineapple with the canned papaya cubes. Add gingerale last. Stir and pour into punch glasses.

Polynesian Ham Slices

Half a cup minced onion; ¼ cup butter; 4 cups herb-seasoned croutons; ½ cup raisins; 1 cup hot water; 1 chicken bouillon cube; 6 pineapple slices (canned); 6 slices fully-cooked boneless ham; ½ cup frozen orange juice; ¼ cup bottled steak sauce; ¼ cup brown sugar; sugared ginger as garnish. Serves 6.

Saute onion in butter until golden. Soak croutons and raisins in hot water with dissolved bouillon cube; add onion and mix well. Arrange ham slices on double thickness aluminum foil lined pan. Top each slice of ham with pineapple, then top with scoop of stuffing. In saucepan, combine juice (undiluted), steak sauce and brown sugar and bring to a simmer. Brush mounds with this glaze. Cover with foil and refrigerate until needed.

Bake in 400 F. oven for 35 minutes, brushing with glaze twice. Top with crystallized bites of ginger.

Baked Stuffed Sweet Potatoes

Scrub medium potatoes, wrap in foil and bake in 400 F. oven until easily pierced with fork. Open foil, slit them and remove centers. Reserve skins and foil. Mash insides and whip up with butter, salt, paprika and a dash of grated nutmeg. If liquid is needed, add sherry. Spoon whipped mixture into skin, sprinkle tops with brown sugar. Reheat.

Make a salad of avocado slices and watercress. Dress with a mixture of oil, lime juice, honey, salt, salad herbs, and grated black peppercorns. Buy coconut macaroons and that's your Polynesian Party.

Semester Grades Highest Ever

The Stevenson School ended the first semester with the highest number of boys on the Honor Roll and with Faculty Honors in school history. Some 104 boys made honors, with 36 achieving Faculty Honors.

Freshman Arlen Chase and Senior Robert Howard each had perfect records. Both boys are top debaters, and Howard is an outstanding organist. John Cann was third in spite of his heavy Forensic team efforts and being

Basketball Teams Win Pair

The hot shooting of Mike Greene and John Cann, each with 24 points, led the "Pirates" to a 82-54 win over Monte Vista. George Winters played an outstanding game on defense. The scrappy little "Kinions Kats" also won, going away, as Willis Cook dumped in 21 points to lead the Frosh-Soph to a 63-31 victory.

en shoes in Amsterdam, saw them being worn and enjoyed a Dutch breakfast of eggs in an egg cup, cheese and bread and tea. They "walked to the Palace and watched the reception except we didn't see the queen." A ride in a "Rolse Royse to a windmill for dinner" was fun as was a boat ride to another town. They saw the famous "Nightwatch" at a museum, and Anne Frank's house. Back to Paris where they saw two operas, "Marriage of Figaro" and "Fouquet" at the "Opera Comique."

In Rome they took a tour of the "Vatican Museum and sixteen chapels." During an evening tour they stopped to throw a coin in the "trevis" fountain and saw the city from the top of the hill.

Now these bubbling youngsters are back on the Pine Cone writing staff, as well as the sales staff.

CARMEL—3 BEDROOMS, 3 BATHS—$43,500
An almost new home on a corner, 4 blocks from Post Office, 4 blocks from beach, some ocean view. One bedroom and bath with separate entrance. A real good buy at $43,500.

LOT NEAR TOWN—SOME OCEAN VIEW
Here's a 40'x100' lot, 3½ blocks to the Post Office. It has some water view, is almost level and it is priced at ONLY $13,900.

2 BEDROOMS IN CARMEL WOODS
Here's a delightful home, built by Hugh Comstock. It has that charm that has immortalized Comstock. The house has 1½ baths, a shake roof, wood siding, and a bit of water view. It is in excellent repair. $32,500.

LARGE 4-BEDROOM HOUSE 3 BLOCKS TO P.O. AND A VERY VERSATILE HOUSE IT IS, TOO! Excellent for a family, 2 families, or income. Two bedrooms, 1½ bath up; two bedrooms, 1 bath down. Large living rooms with fireplaces up AND down. Dining room and big kitchen up. Double garage, very near to beach. Many other features. Full price is $59,500 and it probably couldn't be replaced today at $15,000 more.

7 BEDROOMS IN HATTON FIELDS
This very large (6,000 square feet) almost new, custom-built, architect-designed home is ideal for a large family but works well for a small family, too. You cannot imagine the quality of workmanship—if it weren't for the modern baths and kitchen you'd say the house had too much charm and quality to be almost new. There are 5½ baths, formal dining room, library, wet bar, recreation room, and many, many other features. Priced below replacement cost at $148,500.

CARMEL OCEAN-FRONT HOME & POOL
Right on Scenic Drive, with exquisite Ocean view, 3-bedroom, 4-bath home with heated and filtered swim pool. Over $100,000, but definitely worth it. Exclusive.

Rosenker Virtuoso Performance and Local Composer Kelsey Given Ovarions

By Rachel Morton

Former music critic Long Beach Independent-Press Telegram

Two very gifted artists, Michael Rosenker, violinist, and Walter Kelsey, composer, both Monterey Peninsula residents, were given ovations Tuesday night at Sunset Theatre when they appeared with the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Jan de Jong before a capacity audience.

Both appearances were unique in that it was a first performance here of Rosenker as a soloist (he is the concertmaster of the symphony), and it was a first performance anywhere of Kelsey's symphonic poem "Morning Mysticism."

Let me say at once, that the Peninsula is fortunate to have two such great talents. And we are lucky too in having a conductor who is shaping up our orchestra into such a splendid ensemble.

After hearing Rosenker play the Violin Concerto in D Major by Tchaikovsky one wonders why he spent so many years as concertmaster of the New York Philharmonic and other great orchestras when he is a virtuoso violin soloist.

Trained under the great Leopold Auer who also taught Jascha Heifetz, he is a master musician and performer. Even the breaking of a string did not ruffle him. He carried on where he left off on a borrowed instrument until his own was returned, repaired, before the last movement.

The lovely melody after the brief introduction of the concerto, was played in warm rich tones with a smooth legato. The dazzling pyrotechnics which followed in terrific speed—runs, trills, cadenzas—all displayed the superb technique of the artist.

The wistful, nostalgic music of the canzonetta, so typically Tchaikovsky, was played with an almost cello-like tone before the crisp, biting fleetness of the grand finale. The conductor and orchestra gave fine support.

Mr. Kelsey's orchestral suite was inspired by a poem written by his son, Robert. Entitled "Morning Mysticism," the music aptly and most cleverly depicts the five subjects: "The Dawn," "The Dancers," "The Black Idol," "The Bells" and "The Ebony Chests."

"Dawn" was ushered in by eerie sounds, a shimmer of strings and the lugubrious beat of a drum—even a bird twitter.

With an undercurrent of a muted tambourine, "The Dancer" became more and more exciting until a frenzy of sound was reached.

The "Black Idol" was smouldering music, dark with mysticism and oriental languor, but wildly articulate and almost brutal before the closing stroke of the gong.

A jangle of bells, big and little, achieved by way of brilliantly played xylophone, "The Bells" had fascinating rhythm, much percussion, and showed very clever and original composition.

"Ebony Chests," hard and massive, with much brass, became tender under the

Precise Words Of Adm. Fisher

In the Pine Cone last week a headline stated that the Citizens' Committee ENDORSED the Sunset and Motel Ordinances, but it was brought to our attention that what Admiral Fisher said was slightly misinterpreted. The following are the precise words from Admiral Fisher as stated at the meeting.

1. Regarding the two recent ordinances re-zoning Sunset from R-1 to A-2, and prohibiting expansion of motels in R-1, the position of the Board of Directors of the CARMEL CITIZENS' COMMITTEE is as follows:

2. Prior to the passage of these two ordinances the CARMEL CITIZENS' COMMITTEE urged language changes, in personal appearances as well as in its letters to the City Council of Nov. 17 (Motel), and Nov. 18 (Sunset).

3. Now that the two ordinances have been enacted (4 to 1), however, the Board feels that they are a definite step in the right direction, and is in favor of them, provided they are amended as we have urged.

4. The Board considers that no more specific stand should be taken until some-spell of the young prince's dreams. But both dreams and chests were crushed at length in a terrific outpouring of gorgeous orchestral climax.

The music is polytonal impressionism, but it speaks with authority, with power, and with great originality.

Haydn's London Symphony which opened the program was given a sprightly performance. But somehow the music seemed pallid compared with the robust music of the rest of the program.

thing definite and tangible is presented by the opposition; in which case our whole membership should vote upon it.

RLS Breaks Ground

buildings added to the original campus.

Looking back over the years of the school's growth, the Headmaster remembered a time when the graduating classes had only three or four boys and the original student body itself numbered only 16.

Today the student body stands at 300, a number which the school feels is ideal for the five classes, eighth through twelfth grades. Two thirds of those students are residents.

Anticipating the completion of the five buildings which will form an academic quadrangle, Mr. Ricklefs described the long-awaited library, the Fine Arts Center, the new science buildings, the classroom complex and the auditorium.

The buildings have been designed and planned by John Lyon Reid of the San Francisco architectural and engineering firm, Reid and Tarics. Alex Tarics was on hand at the ceremony to represent the firm which has designed many of the new buildings on the campus.

Mr. Ricklefs then read from a letter he received from a representative of the Thayer Lindley Foundation in New York City which gave the single largest gift to the recent fund, "Forward with R.L.S." campaign.

In this letter, the representatives talked of his foreboding about the school "way out in California," but stated that he came away from his visit to the school two weeks ago not only reassured but enthusiastic.

Construction is beginning immediately on the library and the Morse Fine Arts Center. The science building is scheduled next to be followed by construction later this spring of the auditorium and classroom buildings.
